Abbitt Meets With POW Wives

Representative Watkins M. Abbitt is shown above meeting with Virginians who are concerned about the problem of American Prisoners of War now being held by North Vietnam and the Viet Cong. Abbitt met in Washington with Mrs. W. N. Grubb of Colonial Heights, wife of an Air Force major and Mrs. Paul Edward Galanti of Blackstone and Richmond, wife of a Naval Lieutenant Commander, both of whom are prisoners of the North Vietnamese. Shown in the picture with Abbitt are (left to right) Mrs. Grubb, Mrs. Galanti, Mrs. Tyrone S. Clifford, Mrs. Chalres E. Mansini, and Mrs. Henry E. Richeson, all of Richmond who represent Concerned For POWs, an organization trying to assist wives of American prisoners. Abbitt assured the two wives of his "unrelenting support" and said he is continuing to press the matter through the State Department and other sources. Sometime ago Abbitt introduced a Congressional resolution calling upon the American government to bring new pressure on the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong for release of the nearly 1500 American prisoners now being held.

Jaycees' Annual Halloween Candy

The Appomattox County Jaycees are conducting their annual Halloween Candy Sale on Tuesday night October 20 at 6 p.m. Any portion of the county that the Jaycees are unable to service on the 20th will be serviced the following night.

Proceeds from the project goest to the support of the Appomattox County Rescue Squad, Appomattox County Volunteer Fire Department, Pamplin Volunteer Fire Department, Gladstone Volunteer Rescue Squad, Dixie Youth League and other community development programs.

When a Jaycee knocks on your door on October 20th, buy a bag of candy. Help us help our community.

Fall Meeting For Group III

Ladies of Group III, please get your bonnets ready to attend the Fall Group Meeting at Red Oak Baptist Church on October 7, 1970, at 10 a.m. Mrs. H. C. Goerner will be our guest speaker; therefore we know that the day will be pleasant and profitable. The host church will provide drinks, dessert, and congealed salads to supplement the sandwich which each lady will please bring for herself. In addition to all this hospitality, the ladies of the church will provide a nursery for small children. See you there on Wednesday, Oct. 7.

J. A. Nolen Joins Staff At Fidelity

LYNCHBURG, Sept. 24--James Addison Nolen, Extension Agent Farm Management, will join Fidelity National Bank as Director of Agricultural Services on October 1, according to an announcement by E. B. Harris, Jr., Fidelity President, following a Board of Directors meeting this week.

Nolen's duties will include gathering information about current events in agriculture, aiding with agriculture lending, coordinating farm management programs and developing agro-business in this area.

A native of Halifax County, Nolen was graduated from Amelia High School in 1953 and received his B. S. degree in agricultural economics from Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1958.

Following completion of six months active duty with the Army, he accepted a position as Assistant County Agent with the Virginia Extension Service in Buckingham County. He was promoted to County Agent-At-Large in 1962 and was responsible for coordinating the Farm Management Education Program in the East Central Extension District.

In 1964 Nolen became Farm Management Specialist in the Farm Record - Management - Service program of the Georgia Farm Bureau working in 75 counties in central and south Georgia.

In January of 1966, he moved to Appomattox to take over duties of Extension Agent - Farm Management in the East Central Extension District and has remained there until the present time.

Nolen is Vice President of the Oakville Ruritan Club and is a member of the Woodmen of the World, the Virginia Association of Extension Agents and the National Association of County Agriculture Agents. Nolen and his wife, the former Rosetta Paige Clark, are members of Liberty Baptist Church. They have one daughter, Ann Paige.

The family lives at 106 Church Street in Appomattox.

District Governor Visits Local Club

ACHS Band Parents To Meet Oct. 8th

Mrs. Ray Noble, President of the Appomattox County High School Band Parents Organization, has announced that there will be a meeting on Thursday, October 8th, at 7:30 p.m. in the band room at the school.

Fund raising projects for the new band uniforms, already ordered, will be discussed. All members of the ACHS Band Parents Organization are urged to attend this most important meeting.

Who Will Be Football Queen?

Nine pretty girls are running for three titles as "Football Queen" -- one Queen for each of the three youth football teams in the Little League. Chairman is Mrs. W. E. Chenault.

The young contests are asking a penny a vote (notice the jars in stores and banks) with all funds going to purchase insurance and equipment for the football players. "Bragg's Boys" (8 year old) will have as their Queen either Pam Guill, Lisa Moore or Sherri Repass. "Mites" (9-10 years old) will have Carol Beaty, Barbara Ferguson or Rindy Lawson. "T-Reb" contestants are Jeanie Stimpson, Jeanette Clark and Cindy Smith. Deadline for voting is Saturday, Oct. 3 when the Queens will be crowned at half time of the Mites' game against Blue Ridge Farms here at ACHS stadium. Voting time ends 12 noon Sat.

BAKE SALE

Homemade cakes and pies will be on sale this Saturday, Oct. 3, in front of Fidelity National Bank on Main Street beginning at 9 a.m. This sale is sponsored by the Robert E. Lee Academy Parent - Teacher Organization.

Jaycees' Punt, Pass Kick Saturday Oct. 3

Registration closes Oct. 2, so all boys 8 through 13 are urged to go with their Mon, Dad or legal guardian to registration headquarters at Lawson Ford, Inc.

Everything is free and each boy gets a copy of the PP& K tips book which contains stories and tips by outstanding NFL stars.

Contestants will be competing against boys in their own age group in three football skills -- punting, passing and kicking. Trophies will be awarded to the first, second and third place winners in each age group. There is no body contact and participating does not affect a boy's amateur standing.

Jaycees of Appomattox and Lawson Ford want to remind all boys 8 through 13 that they can register until 5 p.m. Friday for the Punt, Pass and Kick competition scheduled for Sat., Oct. 3 at 1:30 p.m. at the Appomattox County High School stadium.

This competition, now in its tenth year, is open to boys 8 through 13 and is absolutely free. They will be competing for 18 handsome all-metal trophies to be awarded during the local competion which is sponsored by Lawson Ford, Inc. and the Appomattox Jaycees.

Door-To-Door Canvass Begins By Rescue Squad

Rescue Squad members rode 299 miles last week on emergency calls and now they're getting ready to walk many miles in door - to - door canvassing of households throughout the county, October is Rescue Squad month in Appomattox.

The mileage last week plus 37 man hours was in response to several emergencies including one transport case, one house call, one stroke, one person dead on arrival, one over dose of drugs, one obstetrical case and one wreck.

You'll find the Rescue Squad men and women walking, too -- first in the town of Appomattox on Monday evening, Oct. 5 when Tri-Hi-Y members and other clubs from Appomattox County High School will help them in a canvass of households to seek funds for a new vehicle.

That drive for $12,500 continues on Tuesday evening in Oakville when Ruritans and others will help the Squad members go door - to - door in the Oakville area. On Thursday night, Oct. 8 they'll be walking for dollars in the Red House area and will be assisted by club members from nearby organizations.

Woman's Club Invites Public To Meeting

The Appomattox Woman's Club has issued an invitation to the public to hear Delegate Claude Anderson, of Buckingham, speak on proposed changes in Virginia's constitution, changes which will be voted upon on November 3rd.

Del. Anderson will be introduced by Commonwealth's Attorney Harry G. Lawson. Mr. Anderson represents the counties of Appomattox, Nelson and Buckingham in the Va. legislature.

Mrs. H. G. Lawson, chairman of the Woman's Club Dept. of Legislature and Public Affairs, is in charge of the program. Mrs. A. B. Norcom is club president.

The meeting will be held at the Rescue Squad Building at 7:30 p.m. Monday evening, Oct. 5.

Citizens Organize To Publicize And Support School Bond Vote

Robert Earl Pankey checks camera adjustments outside Appomattox County High School in preparation for another day's picture taking. He has been granted several days leave from Babcock & Wilcox, Lynchburg, to assist the Appomattox County School Board in preparation of colored slides about public schools in the county. It's all part of an effort to acquaint voters with present school conditions and the need for a new senior high school. The present high school has a rated capacity of 506 and an enrollment of 645 with the number growing each year. Preliminary plans and working drawings for the new school have been authorized by the Board of Supervisors and are nearing completion.

Teacher Supports Bond Issue

Miss Flora Belle Williams of Pamplin, well known teacher and principal, now retired, says "I'm only a small taxpayer but I'm supporting the bond issue on Nov. 3rd." "I want our children to be trained to the best of their potentialities." She's asking that the county youth in return for a new school, "cooperate with their teachers and study" keeping in mind that they are "citizens of tomorrow and future leaders of the state and national government." (See page 5).

Committee Meets Wednesday Night To Chart Progress

The Appomattox County Citizens Committee for Better Schools was scheduled to meet Wednesday evening at the Appomattox County High School library to review progress made by smaller committees to prepare information and publicity concerning the county's Nov. 3rd bond referendum for the issuing of $2,000,000 in bonds to build and equip a new central high school.

All interested persons are invited to attend such meetings of the County Committee for Better Schools in an effort to disseminate information about the public school system and to publicize the bond referendum and plans for the building of new facilities for a senior high school.

First meeting of a group of parents of school children and community leaders was held Wednesday night, Sept. 16. The meeting was called by the Appomattox County School Board with school board chairman, Lyle N. Garrette presiding.

Brochure & Slides

At the Sept. 16 meeting a committee was organized to prepare a brochure to mail to each household in the county with a mailing. The Jr. A. Jaycee group is working on a series of colored slides.

Volunteers are being asked to show the slides to interested civic clubs, church groups and others to illustrate present school facilities and to explain the reasons for the bond referendum. Included will be an architect's rendering of the proposed new senior high school.

Robert Earl Pankey, supervisor in charge of photography at Babcock & Wilcox NNFD, Lynchburg, has been granted several days leave from his work with B & W to assist the school board in the preparation of the slides.

Gun Safety Course Sat. October 10

The Appomattox County Farm Bureau Women's Committee, is sponsoring a Gun Safety Course on Saturday, October 10, 1970, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Appomattox County High School Cafeteria.

This course is offered free of charge to the boys and girls of the county between the ages of 10 and 15 years old.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE FRIDAY FOR DISTRICT MEETING

All public schools of Appomattox county will be closed Friday, Oct. 2 so that teachers may attend the District F meeting at E. C. Glass High School, Lynchburg.
